

Answers for Worksheet: Spanish Informal Affirmative Tú Commands

Affirmative Tú (Informal) Commands		Irregular Affirmative Tú Verbs
<ul style="list-style-type: none">tell someone to do something using the familiar subject pronoun “tú”verbs use the present indicative “usted” formsubject pronoun “tú” can be used after the verb to add emphasis to the commanddirect & indirect object pronouns are attached to the end of the verbwhen DO and IO pronouns are placed on the verb, accent mark is added to the verb if needed to maintain correct pronunciation of the verbcommands are called “mandatos” in Spanish		poner	pon
		tener	ten
		venir	ven
		hacer	haz
		salir	sal
		decir	di
		saber	sé
		ir	ve
Estudia tú esta noche. Study tonight. (emphatic) ¡Corre rápido! Run quickly!
Sé quieto. Be quiet. Dámelo por favor. Give it to me please.
Hoy, compra un ratón nuevo. Today, buy a new mouse.
Cuando vienes a clase, trae la computadora contigo. When you come to class, bring your computer with you.
Tráela contigo. Bring it with you. (a computer)
Haz la tarea. Do the homework.
Por favor, ten cuidado en la carretera. Please, be careful on the highway.
Dile a tu novio que le quieras. Tell him your boyfriend that you love him.
Ven tú con nosotras. Come with us. (emphatic) Hazlo. Do it. Cuídate. Take care of yourself.
Si suena el teléfono, contéstala por favor. If the phone rings, answer it please.			